AAA Ltd. Richard Dixon Memorial Scholarship Fund

Information

In recognition of services to the alpaca industry by the late Dr Richard Dixon, the Australian Alpaca Association Ltd. has established the Richard Dixon Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Eligibility

The Richard Dixon Memorial Scholarship is available to senior students of Veterinary Science who are Australian citizens or permanent residents and who are studying at an Australian University.

Criteria

Funding will be awarded each financial year by AAA Ltd. Board of Directors for the benefit of veterinary students to assist in meeting financial outlay whilst furthering their education in South American Camelid medicine.

The scholarship may be awarded to more than one applicant in any financial year at the discretion of AAA Ltd. Board of Directors.

The successful applicant/s will be expected to provide an article report, for possible publication in the AAA Ltd. magazine. Article reports will be required before the end of the financial year in which the scholarship is awarded.

Referees

Applicants are required to provide two (2) referees. Education institution referees are acceptable; however preference will be given to applications including an alpaca industry referee or a current member of Australian Alpaca Veterinarians (AAV).

References must be provided in writing and submitted with the application.

Applications

Application form and supporting documentation may be sent by post or email to:

Australian Alpaca Association Ltd.

PO Box 1076

Mitcham North, Vic 3132

Email: alpaca@alpaca.asn.au

Closing Date for Applications

Applications close 30th June of each financial year

Notification of Result

All applicants will be notified. Successful applicant/s will be notified by 30th July.
